continuous stream of benefits until he dies. The insurer, or annuity provider, pools longevity risk across all contract-holders and is thus able to offer longevity insurance for the customer population.

Research support was provided by the Pension Research Council at the Wharton School, the National Bureau of Economic Research, the Wharton-SMU Research Center at Singapore Management University and the Economic and Social Research Institute of the EPA of Japan. Helpful comments were provided by Alan Auerbach. Much of the research referenced draws on material appearing in Jeffrey Brown, Olivia S. Mitchell, James Poterba and Mark Warshawsky (2001). Opinions and errors are solely those of the author and not of the institutions with which she is affiliated.
