Abstract

As Indian economy is firmly on the growth track, the Indian corporates are aggressively pursuing the equity fund raising to finance their projects and the expansion activity. The calendar year 2010 has seen busy activity in terms of equity fund raising by Indian corporates through the domestic routes (of IPOs, FPOs, QIPs). However, the activity on the international routes (of FCCBs, ADRs and GDRs) has been subdued.

The domestic fund raising has been clearly dominating and also indicates that the Indian market has significantly matured to cater to the needs of the Indian corporate.

Keywords: India, Indian financial markets, Indian capital markets, IPO, FPO, QIP, ADR, GDR, Initial Public Offering, American Depositary Receipt, Global Depositary Receipt, Qualified Institutional Placement, domestic fund raising, international fund raising, Indian economy, Indian macro, macro economics
