Abstract

After a lengthy process of deliberation, the Indonesian parliament recently passed Law 17/2003 on State Finance. The prime objective of the legislation is to ensure that public finances are managed in a transparent and accountable manner. To achieve this, the law aims to reform the management of state finances, to ensure that the management of state finances is transparent and accountable, and to ensure that the management of state finances is transparent and accountable. The law also aims to ensure that the management of state finances is transparent and accountable, and to ensure that the management of state finances is transparent and accountable.
