Abstract

Abandoned housing projects is one of the housing problems in Peninsular Malaysia. Even though there are laws and policies provided by the Malaysian government to govern the housing industry, the abandoned housing projects problem is still an unresolved issue for the Malaysian government. The real victims are the purchasers themselves. There are no specific or common ways to face the problems because the issues faced by the stakeholders vary for <sup>17</sup>Normally, the aggrieved purchasers apply for help to the Ministry of Finance (MOF), Ministry of Housing and Local Government (MHLG), Chief Ministers (Menteri Besar/Ketua Menteri) and the Prime Minister through their respective States’ Assemblymen (Ahli Dewan Undangan Negeri – ADUN) or their Members of Parliament (MPs) to rehabilitate the abandoned housing projects. However, this may take some time. Sometimes, the application may not be approved due to problems related to the projects. The approval usually depends on the gravity of the problems, the availability of funds on the part of the government or the ‘political interest’ of the government. These parties (MOF, MHLG and the PM) may instruct SPNB/TPPT to carry out a feasibility study and rehabilitation scheme.
