Notes

- 1. As part of China's World Trade Organisation (WTO) commitment to further liberalized the banking sector and to give the foreign banks completely open access to the China financial markets by year-end 2006.
- 2. Bank of Communications was made a State Owned Commercial Bank (SOCB) from Joint Stock Commercial Bank by CBRC in 2007.
- 3. In 2004, the CBRC announced that CCBs are allowed to expand to other cities if their financial performance at the ISCBs. The move is applicated as this will enable the CCBs to international reserves to a newly created entity, the Central Huijin Investment Company (Central Huijin), which acts as the holding company for the government's shares in BOC and CCB. A similar exercise was conducted in April 2005 with Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (ICBC) for a sum of US$15bn. As in the previous cases, Central Huijin is the shareholder of government's shares in the ICBC.
