Notes

- 1. Alan Milburn MP, July 1997.
- 2. In March 2001, Partnerships UK became a PPP with 51per cent stake sold to the private sector.
- 3. The first 'round' of PFI funding, which NCC terms PFI1.
- 4. The second 'round' of PFI funding.
- 5. At this point, the irony of the 'sufficiency' criterion was far from apparent.
- 6. We make no comment on the financial viability of the PFI compared with the 'traditional' route of NCC borrowing money from the Public Works Loan Commissioners or as credit approvals under the 2003 Local Government Act.
- 7. The decision could have been reversed as from 2006 under the School Standards and Framework Act, 1998, schedule 6§5.1–8.
- 8. As of March 2008.
- 9. Although in this paragraph we retain Kwa's (2002) terminology of 'looking down' and 'looking up', our Deleuzo Guattarian rhizomic view rejects these imaginaries in favour of an ascalar, flat 'looking among' (see Marston et al., 2005; Jones III et al., 2007; Marston et al., 2007).

- 14. See Browning and Kilmister (2006) for explanations of classical, critical and post-critical political economy, while Castree (2008) examines the broadness of institutional political economy.
- 15. We do accept that several authors (such as Ian Buchanan, 2008; Michael Hardt and Antonio Negri, 2000; and Eugene Holland, 1999, 2006) recognise an articulation of aspects of Deleuze's thinking with, and going beyond, political economy, especially in Anti-Oedipus (Deleuze and Guattari, 1972/1984).
