We Care About Your Privacy

We and our 912 partners store and access personal data, like browsing data or unique identifiers, on your device. Selecting "I Accept" enables tracking technologies to support the purposes shown under "we and our partners process data to provide," whereas selecting "Reject All" or withdrawing your consent will disable them. If trackers are disabled, some content and ads you see may not be as relevant to you. You can resurface this menu to change your choices or withdraw consent at any time by clicking the ["privacy preferences"] link on the bottom of the webpage [or the floating icon on the bottom-left of the webpage, if applicable]. Your choices will have effect within our Website. For more details, refer to our Privacy Policy. Here

Notes

1. To evaluate research trends on women in the workplace, a review of articles published between 1985 and 1997 was conducted by Drs. Elizabeth Cooper and Susan Bosco of the University of Rhode Island across four journals relevant to GIO-type articles: Journal of Applied Psychology, Academy of Management Review, Academy of Management Journal, and Psychology of Women.
